

Programme for the VII International Forum
“EVERY CHILD DESERVES A FAMILY: EARLY INTERVENTION PROGRAMMES”

15-17 October 2018
Moscow

Monday 15 October

9:00 – 10:00 Participant registration. Coffee break to welcome the participants. 2nd-floor Hall

10:00 – 10:45 Opening of the Forum

10:45 - 11:30 Plenary presentation 1

Moderators: Svyatoslav Dovbnya and Tatiana Morozova, Naked Heart Foundation experts

Every Child Deserves a Family. Plans, outlook and Naked Heart projects.

Anastasia Zalogina, President of the Naked Heart Foundation, Moscow

Inna Monova, Director of the Every Child Deserves a Family programme

11:30 - 12:45 Plenary presentation 2

Moderator: Tatiana Morozova, Naked Heart Foundation expert

A brief comprehensive overview of empirically-supported assessment and treatment of paediatric feeding disorders

Valerie Volkert Ph.D., BCBA-D, Assistant Professor of Paediatrics at Emory University School of Medicine, psychologist programme manager in the Paediatric Feeding Disorders Programme at the Marcus Autism Centre

12:45 - 13:00 Presentation of the content of the workshops

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch. 2nd-floor Hall

14:00 – 18:00 - Workshops

Workshop 1

Moderators: Elena Alshanskaya, President of the charitable foundation “Volunteers to Support Orphans”; Dana Johnson, Professor of Paediatrics and member of the Divisions of Neonatology and Global Paediatrics at the University of Minnesota, USA

Mellow Parenting programme. Working with parents with learning difficulties.
Christine Puckering, Mellow Parenting, UK

Workshop 2

Moderators: Svyatoslav Dovbnya, child neurologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert; Marybeth Barkocy, University of New Mexico, USA; Valentina Zherebtsova, Centre for Child Psychoneurology, Tula

Early intervention for children with severe and multiple disabilities

1. Early intervention for neuromotor development

Marybeth Barkocy, Board Certified Specialist in Paediatric Physical Therapy, Assistant Professor at the University of New Mexico, USA

2. Experience of working on an international project to provide effective support to children with motor disorders: successes, challenges and perspectives

Valentina Zherebtsova, Director of the Centre for Child Psychoneurology, Tula

3. Physical rehabilitation today: what is the best way to implement it? Identifying the optimum rehabilitation model for children with motor disorders.

Sofia Ushakova, doctor and physiotherapist, Centre for Child Psychoneurology, Tula

4. Talking with non-verbal children: options for alternative communication. Medical, psychological and social aspects of interaction with the family.

Aleksandra Fedotova, psychologist, Centre for Child Psychoneurology, Tula

5. Evidence-based methods of assessing the effectiveness of rehabilitation, preliminary results of project work

Elena Grigorieva, neurologist, Centre for Child Psychoneurology, Tula

Workshop 3.

Moderator: Tatiana Morozova, clinical psychologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert

Feeding problems and the intensive treatment approach, based on the Marcus Autism Centre model, with some general recommendations

Valerie Volkert Ph.D., BCBA-D, Assistant Professor of Paediatrics at Emory University School of Medicine, psychologist programme manager in the Paediatric Feeding Disorders Programme at the Marcus Autism Centre

Workshop 4

Legal workshop

15:30 – 16:00 Coffee break. 2nd-floor Hall

Tuesday 16 October

10:00 - 11:00 Plenary presentations 1

Moderator:

1. Neurobiological foundations for early intervention

Svyatoslav Dovbnya, child neurologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert

2. Why every relationship matters: stress, attachment and brain development

Christine Puckering, Mellow Parenting, UK

3. Why every child needs a family: Bucharest Early Intervention Project follow-up through 16 years

Dana Johnson, Professor of Paediatrics and member of the Divisions of Neonatology and Global Paediatrics at the University of Minnesota, co-founder the International Adoption Programme

11:00 – 12:15 Plenary presentations 2

Moderator: Svyatoslav Dovbnya, child neurologist, and Tatiana Morozova, clinical psychologist, Naked Heart Foundation experts

Parents' power

12:15 - 12:30 Presentation of the content of the workshops

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch. 2nd-floor Hall

13:30 – 17:30 Workshops

Workshop 1

Moderators: Elena Alshanskaya, President of the charitable foundation “Volunteers to Support Orphans”; Dana Johnson, paediatrician, USA; Christine Puckering, Mellow Parenting, UK
Psychological and paediatric consequences of early deprivation: efforts of a cross-disciplinary team to address them

1. Effects of deprivation on child development and treatment and support for children experiencing early adversity

Dana Johnson, paediatrician, University of Minnesota, USA

2. The importance of multidisciplinary approach to supporting children with early trauma
Inna V. Pasechnik and Natalia A. Belova

3. Cross-disciplinary approaches to early intervention in infant orphanages
Oleg I. Palmov

Workshop 2

Moderators: Svyatoslav Dovbnya, child neurologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert; Marybeth Barkocy, University of New Mexico, USA; Valentina Zherebtsova, Centre for Child Psychoneurology, Tula

Early intervention for children with severe and multiple disabilities

1. Early communication and AAC for children with multiple disabilities

Jessica Mount Matney, MS CCC-SLP, New Mexico School for the Blind and Visually Impaired

2. Path of early development

Aleksandr Palchik, professor, St Petersburg

3. How early intervention can help children with motor disorders and severe and multiple disabilities, Sure Start programme

Natalia Belyaeva, Sure Start programme supervisor, Prostranstvo Obshenia (“Communication Space) Centre

4. Markers for speech disorders in young children

T.P. Kalashnikova, PhD, professor in the department of neurology at Perm State Medical University

5. Feeding disorders in young children and how to correct them

G.V. Anisimov

Workshop 3

Moderators: Thomas Higbee, Professor of Special Education and Rehabilitation at Utah State University and Director of the ASSERT programme, Tatiana Morozova, clinical psychologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert, St Petersburg

ASSERT programme in the USA and Russia

1. Development of play skills in children with ASD

Dr Thomas Higbee

2. ASSERT programme as clinical basis for educating specialists working with preschool children with ASD

Ilya Markov and Tatiana Shipovnilova, psychologists at the Naked Heart Family Support Centre, Nizhny Novgorod

15:30 – 16:00 Coffee break. 2nd-floor Hall

19:00 Round table for press representatives

Wednesday 17 October

10:00-11:00 Plenary presentation 1

Moderator: Svyatoslav Dovbnya, child neurologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert, St

Petersburg

Using Family Coaching to Support Child Learning and Development

Erin E. Barton, PhD, BCBA-D, Department of Special Education, Vanderbilt University, USA

11:00-12:15 – Closing of the Forum

12:15 - 13:00 Presentation of the content of the workshops.

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch. 2nd-floor Hall

14:00 – 18:00 Workshops

Workshop 1

Moderator: Elena Alshanskaya, President of the charitable foundation “Volunteers to support orphans”, Christine Puckering, Mellow Parenting, UK

1. Stages of Medical and Psychological Work with Adopted Children who have Experienced Deprivation and Show Symptoms of Abnormal Development.

Ekaterina B. Zhuikova

2. Characteristics of Differential Diagnostics and Support of Deprived Children

Anna A. Partnova, PhD, main freelance child psychiatrist for the Moscow Department of Health, Head of the Division of Clinical Psychiatry for Children and Adolescents at the Federal Medical Research Centre for Psychiatry and Narcology of the Russian Ministry of Health

Workshop 2

Moderator: Svyatoslav Dovbnaya, child neurologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert

Specific Strategies for Coaching Families in Enhancing Their Child’s Child Learning and Development: Preventing Challenging Behaviours and Teaching New Skills

Erin E. Barton, PhD, BCBA-D, Department of Special Education, Vanderbilt University, USA

Workshop 3

Moderator: Tatiana Morozova, clinical psychologist, Naked Heart Foundation expert

Sleep disorders in children with ASD

Jo Smyth, the Children Sleep Charity, UK

15:30 – 16:00 Coffee break. 2nd-floor Hall

16:30 -18:00 Panel discussion

The role of parents’ associations in promoting evidence-based approaches

Autism-Regiony